MARRIOTT WINS MOTOR CYCLE TRIAL

Lewis Comes Second &
Williams Fourth.

The China Mail learns from an unofficial source that E. Marriott, riding a 5 h.p. Rudge machine, machine, won the Hong Kong Reliability Trial which was staged on Saturday night and Sunday morning over a 290 1/2 miles course.

H. E. Lewis was placed second on his 3 1/2 h.p. A.J.S., while H. G. Williams on a 2.49 h.p. B.S.A. was fourth.

Chinese Ferry Launched

Mme. Quo Tai-chi Acts
At Ceremony.

London, To-day.

China's first train ferry, costing £70,000, was launched by Mme. Quo Tai-chi at Walker-on-Tyne to-day.

The vessel is 372 feet long, with a dead weight 1,550 tons, and is named the Chang Kiang. It will be used in conveying trains over the Yangtze River from Nanking to Pukow and is capable of carrying three trains, with a total of twenty-one wagons.

The ferry was built with funds of Boxer Indemnity, and is acknowledged as one of the finest and most modern vessels of her sort. — Reuter.

19TH. ROUTE ARMY LEADER DEPARTS.

Fukien People Pledge Support.

General Au Shau-nien, Commander of the 78th Division of the 19th Route Army, left Hong Kong for Fukien on the s.s. Tsinan yesterday afternoon.

He informed the China Mail representative that immediately on his arrival at Amoy he would proceed to the fighting zone at Lung Ngam, where the 78th Division was preparing to launch a general attack on the Communists in the district.

General Au further stated that the disbanding of the provincial troops under command of General Chan Kuo-fai had been completed and steps towards reorganisation of the provincial administration had been started.

Before the departure of General Au, Mr. Choong Shing-chung, manager of the Fukien Chamber of Commerce in Hong Kong expressed on behalf of the Fukien people willingness to support the 19th Route Army at any cost. Replying, General Au said he would convey the sentiments of the Fukien people to General Tsi Ting-kai, Commander-in-chief of the 19th Route Army.

JAPANESE MISSION TO PEIPING.

Manchukuo Sending An Emissary.

Changchun, To-day.

Mr. Tokuzo Komai, Councillor of Manchukuo, is expected to visit Peiping shortly in a private capacity, but it is believed his mission is an important one which is likely to bring a change in the political situation in North China. — Reuter.

RECIPROCAL DUTIES BULWARK TRADE

COLONY PREFERENCES CONFINED TO MOTORS

MUTUAL PROTECTION FOUND

IMPERIAL TARIFF PREFERENCES, BASED UPON A DESIRE FOR THE PROTECTION OF BRITISH INDUSTRY, AND LINKING THE SCATTERED DOMINIONS AND COLONIES MORE CLOSELY TO THE MOTHER LAND, ARE ANNOUNCED IN DETAIL FROM LONDON TO-DAY. THE TARIFFS, WHICH WILL BE OPPOSED BY A STRONG FACTION IN PARLIAMENT, ARE EXPECTED TO BE DISCUSSED AND POSSIBLY IMPLEMENTED AT THE COMING SESSION, WHICH WILL OPEN NEXT TUESDAY.

A large measure of protection is contained in the agreements, all of which were reached at the Ottawa Conference, but there are proposals for further extending the preferences, in one instance to block Japanese cotton interests in their attempt to stampede British competition out of Ceylon.

The Anglo-Canadian agreement provides for lower duty on 48 per cent. of the total imports from the United Kingdom, while goods valued at £88,000,000 per annum are admitted free from Canada.

British imports of foreign meat will be drastically and progressively restricted. South Africa imposes minimum specific duties on foreign goods, while British products are admitted free. India gives a ten per cent. preference on 163 items, to which may be added cotton and artificial silk piece goods. Australia gives a preference to British goods ranging 15 to 20 per cent. New Zealand will reduce all duties on British goods and Newfoundland has granted a preference of 10 per cent. on certain classes of required material.

Under the Ottawa agreements, Ceylon will be invited to adopt the principle of preference in respect of a number of Indian products, of which cotton piece goods is the most important, while the Government of British Malaya will be invited to return for which India will grant preferences to certain Colonial products.

The effect of a preference for British-made cotton in Ceylon will be a boom to British industry, already threatened with Japanese "dumping." Japan, however, has intimated that she will erect cotton mills in India and thus circumvent the preference restrictions in India and Ceylon, if they are introduced in the latter territory.

Colonies Benefit. Arrangements were made on behalf of the Colonies at Ottawa to provide for numerous increased preferences, but these are confined to motor vehicles in Straits Settlements and Hong Kong. It is expected that a reduction of the duty on canned pineapples will benefit Malaya, and numerous tropical products, including fruits from the West Indies and vegetable oils from West Africa, are receiving preferences from the Dominions.

The Cabinet will consider implementing the Ottawa decisions during its meetings this week, for at the forthcoming session, opening on Tuesday next, the matter of Empire duties will probably be disposed of. The Government anticipates stiff opposition to its Imperial Preference policy, which entails the levying of tariffs against foreign products coming into Great Britain.

Many "Free" Items.

London, To-day. In regard to modification of import duties in the Dominions on articles imported from Britain, full particulars are given of the new rates imposed. In regard to Canada, these modifications apply to some 215 items, of which, in 132 cases, duties on United Kingdom goods are to be reduced, while in 79 cases such goods are for the first time to enjoy freedom from Customs Duty. On the basis of last year's trade, over 40 per cent. of imports from the United Kingdom into Canada will enjoy immediately the advantage of lower Customs Duties than those previously in force. Goods to the value of over £88,000,000 are being admitted free of Customs Duty to Britain from Canada.

LLOYD GEORGE WARNS WORLD OF WAR FEAR

Urges Nations To Abandon Arms.

TREATY CLAUSES BROKEN.

London, To-day.

Mr. Lloyd George, colourful Liberal leader, stepped into the spotlight last night in the role of prophet of impending doom.

Addressing a large gathering in the interests of World Peace, in the Guild Hall, he warned of the world's danger from unsuspicious war.

He was convinced, he said, that no ruler of Europe wanted war in 1914 but that the machinery, once started, crashed forward, out of control and overwhelmed civilisation.

Mr. Lloyd George said he was quite prepared to defend the Treaty of Versailles if it was completely carried out, but he declared that the majority of signatories never had intended that to happen. Before the ink was dry they were arranging the creation of new armies. "I am the last man to plead for Germany," but honour demands that we carry out our pledged word and follow Germany's example by disarmament," said the veteran war-time Prime Minister.

Reuter.

EMPIRE POLICY WILL STIMULATE WORLD'S TRADE

Parliament To Hurry Legislation.

FULL PLANS REVEALED.

London, To-day.

The new Empire Preferences, it is expected, will act as an almost immediate stimulant to world commerce.

With the publication of the summary of the proceedings of the Imperial Conference at Ottawa, the terms of schedules, which had hitherto been kept back, mainly at the request of the Dominions owing to risks of forestalling, are revealed. It is on a basis of the agreements and schedules contained in this report that legislation has been drafted which will be taken up by House of Commons immediately Parliament reassembles on Tuesday next. Legislation will be pressed forward with all speed, not only to prevent forestalling but because, under the Import Duties Act provision for the free entry of imports from the Dominions and Colonies ceases on November 15.

The Report contains the terms of agreements between the United Kingdom and various Dominions and India, and in the opinion of the Government, the agreements greatly increase the opportunity of inter-Imperial trading and represent an important step towards the restoration of world trade. This over-riding consideration was expressed in a resolution passed by the Conference which declared that by the lowering or removal of barriers among themselves, provided in the agreements, the flow of trade between the various countries of the Empire would be facilitated and that by the consequent increase of the purchasing power of their peoples, the trade of the world would also be both stimulated and increased.

Agreement Schedules.

Agreements with all Dominions follow the same general form. Imports from Empire countries into the United Kingdom fall into three classes, namely, those accorded entry free of duty, but subject to revision three years hence, those which are granted preference through imposition of specific duties on foreign goods, and those which receive preference in virtue of ten per cent. ad valorem duty on foreign goods imposed under the Imports Duties Act.

NEW CHAPLAIN FOR D.B.S.

Prominent Oarsman
From Australia.

The Rev. L. D. Nash, M.A., will shortly take up duties as a teacher at the Diocesan Boys' School. He has been engaged as resident assistant master and chaplain, and is due to arrive in March. Educated at Melbourne Grammar School, Australia, and St. Catherine's College, Cambridge, he took good degrees in history and English, and was prominent as an oarsman.

He has had previous experience in teaching in Australia and for the past three years has held a responsible post in the diocese of Melbourne.

RESIGNATIONS OF LIBERAL MINISTERS APPROVED.

Sir Herbert Samuel Declares
His Task Completed.

London, To-day.

A great audience at Queen's Hall last night recorded its approval of the "rebel" Liberal Ministers' recent resignations. Sir Herbert Samuel was the principal speaker. He claimed that the main task for which he joined the Government was finished. — Reuter.

The Ministers who resigned were: Lord Snowden, Lord Privy Seal, Sir Herbert Samuel, Home Secretary, and Sir Archibald Sinclair, Secretary for Scotland.

GERMANS NEED POWER ABOVE PARTY'S RULE

Government Must Be Independent.

VON PAPPEN'S SPEECH.

Munich, To-day.

Reform of the German Constitution was dealt with by Chancellor Herr von Papen in a speech here. He said a powerful authority must be created above all parties.

Government, he added, must be independent of parties, and the Government, not Parliament, must control the affairs of state. His remarks are significant in view of the rumour of a Royalist restoration now current. — Reuter.

PRINCES FLY TO COPENHAGEN.

Greeted In Denmark
By Royal Hosts.

London, To-day.

The Prince of Wales and Prince George yesterday flew in the Imperial Airways liner "Heracles" from Malmo, Sweden, via Hamburg, to Copenhagen. They were greeted by Prince and Princess Axel of Denmark. British Wireless Service.

Two cases of diphtheria were all that was reported to the authorities within the last 24 hours.

TROOPS RUSHED BY LORRIES TO GUARD BELFAST

Arms Among Civilians
Seized In Raids.

PEACE IS MAINTAINED.

Armoured Cars Patrol in Riot-Wrecked Streets.

Belfast, To-day.

Peace is being maintained in Belfast, but only at the point of guns of military and police.

Three thousand police officers, armed with rifles and revolvers, and a fleet of armoured cars, are patrolling the city's danger areas, guarding the Falls Road district, and those other areas where the mob menace was greatest.

Seven lorry loads of troops of the Inniskilling Fusiliers, carrying machine-guns, have arrived in the city and are on duty, their chatty little weapons displayed at points of vantage as much for purposes of intimidation as anything else.

Arms Seized.

A disturbing feature of the trouble, which broke out on Tuesday during a demonstration of unemployed and discontented relief-seeking workers who demanded more pay, was the uncovering of large supplies of arms and ammunition among civilians. Police raids in suspected quarters disclosed this preparation for revolt. It is thought probable that the arms were obtained through some sort of Communist agency.

Already 70 arrests have been made.

The rioting on Tuesday caused numerous casualties and thus far three persons have been reported killed, while others are seriously wounded. Police were forced to fire on mobs, when marksmen among the angry mass commenced sniping at the officers.

Not Intimidated.

The city last night was quiet and most of the streets were deserted.

Lord Craigavon, in a speech at a meeting of Belfast Unionists, said to-day that if the mischief-makers come to Belfast to create trouble or in an attempt to create a Republic, they would be disappointed. He was not a man to be intimidated.

The Belfast Trades Council has resolved to call upon Trades Unions to strike in sympathy with the relief workers, but it is not likely the Trades Unions will concur, particularly as the local shipyards are hoping to secure remunerative orders shortly.

The suggestion of Lord Craigavon that the rioters may have been inspired by Free State sympathisers or even by emissaries sent from Dublin has given a new angle to the Belfast disturbances. — Reuter.

$1,400 ESTATE

Letters of Administration to the estate of Mrs. Mary Rapp, alias M. H., valued at $1,400, have been granted by the Supreme Court to the deceased's son, Mr. Fritz Rapp, a sharebroker. Deceased died intestate at 35 Kai Tack Road, Kowloon City, on March 31, this year, at the age of 76 years. She was the widow of the late Mr. C. F. Rapp, who died in December, 1904.

Considerable official surprise was shown to-day over the revelation that the Earl of Lytton, head of the recent League of Nations inquiry in Manchuria, had asserted that the allied intervention in Siberia in 1918 was "proposed by the United States Government."

Officials recalled that notes exchanged between European capitals and the United States between January and July, 1918, indicated that the proposal originated with the allies and that the United States finally agreed.

Condition Of Hair Vital To Beauty

Methods Of Keeping Healthy Head

Regular Exercise

Now that the millinery styles are designed to show, rather than to cover our hair, we have to pay extra special attention to the latter. The success of your permanent wave depends on two things, and these two things are in your own hands.

The process of permanent waving have been improved to a point where there is no question of perfect results as far as the mechanical procedure is concerned. But a permanent wave is not a mechanical procedure beyond a certain point; artistry enters in, and the skill and experience of the operator play an important part in achieving a lovely wave for you. Also the condition of your hair contributes the possibility of variation in waves, although a trained hairdresser takes this into consideration in winding your hair and in the application of heat. Have your hair in good health, then select a reputable and experienced hairdresser and your coiffure will be safe.

The care of your hair, to keep it healthy and attractive, should be based on an understanding of the structure and activity of your scalp. It has an outer layer of somewhat horny cells; beneath, are several layers more actively functioning which reproduce to replace the horny outer scales as they flake off. The lower layers of the scalp are the sweat glands which secrete perspiration; also in and below these underlying scalp layers are stored fat cells which cushion the scalp. Blood vessels lace the scalp tissues through which the blood stream flows to bring nutriment to the scalp and carry away the wastes of its active cells.

Fallacy of Singeing.

The hair itself is an outgrowth of the horny layer of the surface and it partakes of the same horny nature. It is insensitive, and not being hollow contains no liquid.

The practice of singeing the hair ends to 'seal' them is purest fallacy. The core of the hair is fibrous; the horny cells on the surface lie smoothly and overlap in one direction. Bleached hair feels rough because the bleach opens up the scales. Hair is porous, and naturally curly hair has a greater capacity for absorbing moisture than straight hair. That is why hair curls up tighter in the rain or after shampooing. The permanent waving process is based on this characteristic of the hair; the process alters the hair to make it more porous.

The scalp suffers, as the skin of the face suffers, from the abnormal environment in which we live. Many women have excessively dry hair, because their scalp glands secrete too little oil. Other women have oily hair because the glands are over active. Dry scalp flakes and scales off, just as dry skin peels and is rough and sensitive. An oily scalp is moist and greasy. Both these scalps need stimulating and toning to make the tissues more vigorous so that the action of the glands will correct itself. Scalp pomades supply the deficiency of oil in a dry scalp, while astringent lotions check the excessive secretions of an oily scalp.

Need of Exercise.
What every scalp needs is exercise. Think how little movement your scalp gets! Tight hats restrict it, nothing ever stretches it; no wonder the blood flows languidly about those starving hair roots! Your scalp should be a loose elastic tissue; on most heads it is tight, thin and hard. You can improve your hair wonderfully by giving your scalp regular exercise.

How can you exercise your scalp? By massage. Sit down before a table; put your elbows on the table and your hands in your hair. Feel the weight of your head on the heel of your palms; now rotate your scalp under the pressure of your palms. Press hard with the heel of each hand; after a moment move your hands to another position and repeat the rotary massage. Do this along the hair line all round your head, then move the hands up towards the crown and give the massage in several positions on the top and the sides of your head. Now spread your fingers and plant the cushion part of each finger tip in your scalp, keeping the fingers stiff, the tips firm against the head. Now rotate your scalp under the pressure of your fingers. What these rotary movements do is to loosen the scalp, often and stretch it free from the tight attachment to the cranium. You stimulate circulation through the tissues by doing this, and bring nourishment to the roots of the hair.

Pinching is an excellent exercise for scalp, too. Use the thumb and first finger of each hand to lift the scalp in little pinches. Try it now—can you do it? Perhaps you cannot lift the skin at all as the scalp is tense and thin; it should be soft, loose and supple. If you exercise your scalp regularly over a period of time, you will presently be able to take it up in pinches and when you can do that, your hair will be stronger and more lustrous. Pinching is most immediately good for dry hair because it forces the oil out of the lazy glands. It is also ultimately good for the oily scalp because it helps to exercise the tissues into better condition.

Stretching Effective.

Pulling the hair, quarrelsome as it sounds, is another form of exercise recommended by some hair specialists. Take your hair in bunches, grasping it firmly in your hands and give firm and steady pulls. Do not snatch or jerk for it is not hard to pull a hair away from its root, but give a slow pull from the scalp to stretch it and stimulate circulation. Brushing your hair has the same effect. Part the hair in several places and brush step by step over the whole of your head. You should always brush the hair up off the scalp, lifting it with a definite pulling stroke of the brush. Wash your hair as soon as the brush begins to look slightly soiled. Also wash the brush at the same time as you shampoo your hair so that the condition of your brush will always be a check on the cleanliness of your hair. Once a week is not too often to shampoo, unless your hair is extraordinarily dry. Use a mild shampoo; rinse thoroughly after shampooing, with warm water and then tepid (not cold) water. A little lemon juice in the rinsing water will cut the lingering shampoo and leave your hair bright and clean.

MENU SUGGESTIONS FOR TO-MORROW.

Tiffin
Grape Juice Cocktail
Jellied Chicken
Frozen Tomato Salad
Olives
Hot Rolls Plum Jelly
Peach Ice Cream White Cake
Coffee

Grape Juice Cocktail, Serving 8
1 cup sugar
2 cups water
1/2 cup lemon juice
1/2 cup orange juice
3 tablespoons lime juice
2 cups grape juice
8 cups iced water
Roll sugar and water 2 minutes.
Add rest of ingredients. Chill.
Serve in glasses half filled with chopped ice. Garnish with mint leaves and red cherries.

Frozen Tomato Salad.
2 cups tomato juice
3 tablespoons chopped onions
4 tablespoons chopped celery
4 tablespoons chopped pickles
4 tablespoons chopped green peppers
2 tablespoons horseradish
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
1 cup whipped cream
2/3 cup mayonnaise
2 tablespoons sugar
Mix all ingredients. Freeze in regular freezer until stiff. Pack until ready to serve. Serve on lettuce, top with more mayonnaise.
This salad can be frozen by pouring into a tray in the mechanical refrigerator. It will require 4 hours to freeze.

Peach Ice Cream.
1 quart cream
1 1/2 cups sugar
1 tablespoon vanilla
1/2 teaspoon salt
3 cups crushed peaches
Mix ingredients. Freeze until stiff. Remove dasher from freezer and let cream "ripen" 2 hours.
The tomato salad can be frozen first in the freezer, then packed 2 hours in a mould in 4 parts of chopped ice to one part of coarse salt.
A regular ice cream mould can be used or baking powder or coffee cans make excellent moulds. Place several thicknesses of waxed paper across the top of the mould before covering with the lid. This helps to prevent salt entering.

"THE LOVE RACE"—QUEEN'S
THEATRE.

"The Love Race," which is the current attraction at the Queen's Theatre, is another outstanding B. I. P. success which, by its restrained humour of the slapstick variety, provides delightful entertainment.

Under the capable direction of Lupino Lane, the film gives abundant opportunities to Stanley Lupino, in concert with Jack Hobbs for brilliant clowning and clever cross-talk in a succession of witty episodes—calculated completely to obliterate depression and keep the ball of fun rolling at a brisk pace throughout.

Whilst Lupino and Hobbs should be most of the footing, they are very capably supported. Frank Perfit is admirable as the stolid father. Dorothy Boyd is most attractive as the heroine and Dorothy Bartlam lively and engaging as Rita Payne, the innocent cause of all the bother, whilst Arty Ashe gets the last ounce of humour out of the role of Eustace, the inebriated taxi-driver.

The recording and photography are good and the settings artistically mounted.

"PAID TO LOVE"—KING'S
THEATRE.

The first Spanish all talking picture "Hay que Casar al Principe," under the name of "Paid To Love," a Fox production, is the current attraction at the King's Theatre. Local theatre-goers are being given a treat with this production, and should not fail to see it. Translations into English and Chinese of the main points of the story have been made.

Don Jose Mojica, the golden tenor of the talking screen, who appeared in the English production "One Mad Kiss," is the leading player with Conchita Montenegro opposite him.

The story tells of a bankrupt Balkan republic negotiating for a loan from an American millionaire who insists that the heir apparent marries the Prince (Jose Mojica) shows no inclination.

The Government engage a French cabaret girl to charm the Prince. But complications set in, with a full measure of misunderstandings when the girl mistakes the Prince's cousin, for the Prince.

"SINNERS' HOLIDAY"—STAR
THEATRE.

Grant Withers and Evalyn Knapp have the featured roles in "Sinners Holiday" now showing at the Star Theatre. The story deals with life behind the scenes of a penny amusement park and booze racketeering, and there are at least three romances thrown in for good measure. The film is interesting and worth while seeing.

MAIL REVIEW

"CAUGHT"—MAJESTIC
THEATRE.

Richard Arlen, has the leading role in "Caught," the current attraction at the Majestic Theatre. He is seen as the head of a band of soldiers who set out to arrest an outlaw, enacted by Frances Dee. In the supporting cast, Louis Dresser does some excellent work, similar to that she did in "The Goose Game."

CHINESE ACROBATS.

Brilliant Show at King's Theatre.

The Joy Fun Toy Company appearing on an extended season at the King's Theatre are exceptionally good.

Their performance is similar to that of Long Tack Sam with amazing juggling, conjuring and tumbling all of which are well executed. The background is a gorgeous Chinese screen set off by sparkling Chinese costumes.

The Company, presented by Fann Yu Jen, consists of 12 Chinese acrobats and jugglers.

Fann Yu Jen, a China's foremost magician and his mystic wonders are truly brilliant.

"HEARTBREAK"—ORIENTAL
THEATRE.

With the war as its background, "Heartbreak" now showing at the Oriental Theatre, is worth while seeing. Charles Farrell is seen as an airman in the American Embassy, and does a good piece of acting. Madge Evans is the principal player, while Claude King and Hardie Albright are also in the cast.

"AMBASSADOR BILL"—TAIPEI
THEATRE.

Will Rogers, the droll comedian who has made thousands laugh, is the leading player in Fox's production "Ambassador Bill" the current attraction at the Tai Ping Theatre, West Point. Rogers, who passed through the Colony in January this year, is excellently cast, and is supported by a large cast of players. A picture packed with laughs!

"THE PASSIONATE PLUMBER"—QUEEN'S THEATRE.

Irene Purcell and Mona Maris claim the title of champion feminine free-for-all fighters of Hollywood.

During filming of "The Passionate Plumber," the new laugh attraction coming shortly to the Queen's Theatre, "Purcell and Maris" were a strenuous fighting team. They portray two jealous women who finally come to blows in a terrific battle.

Buster Keaton, as the plumber whom both ladies love, is the cause for the free-for-all fight which, before it is over, involves the riotous Jimmy "Schnozzle" Durante and Polly Moran.

JAPANESE TROOP TRAIN MINED.

Casualties Unknown;
Raids Continue.

Harbin, Yesterday.
A land mine was blown up under a Japanese troop-train travelling on the Hu Hai Railway yesterday afternoon between Suilwa and Hulan. No information concerning casualties is available.

The Chinese Eastern Railway authorities learn, meanwhile, that a force of bandits raided and looted Hengtaohotze once again. Twelve employees of the railway were kidnapped.

Telegraphic communication between Harbin and Tsitsihar has been restored, but the train service to the west of Tientsin is impossible owing to the concentration of large forces of Volunteers in the vicinity of Andachan.—Reuter.

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO PRESS

WHITEAWAY, LAIDLAW & CO., LTD.

Much of the news most recently published regarding the Irish Free State's economic deadlock has been faintly suggestive of new hope: There appears, after all, to be some chance of reason prevailing—not, unfortunately for its own merits alone, but in that belated way which follows disillusionment. Yet even that may be better than sullen persistence in a proved folly. After his return from Ottawa—where, so far as the world has yet learned, the sole contribution made to discussion by the Free State delegates was a declaration that under no circumstances would Southern Ireland do anything to restrict imports from Russia—Mr. Thomas stated that he had, over the card table, had several helpful interviews with the men from Dublin. Admitting that Mr. Thomas is scarcely at any time the ideal diplomatist, and recognising also the extreme distaste with which any bridge expert would regard a game so curiously mixed, it is not impossible that some good cards were played in more senses than one. But Mr. Thomas has a partner in hard fact, holding far stronger trumps than himself. The farmers of the Free State, though by no means feeling yet the full effects of their enforced frustration, can perceive already that ruin lies not far ahead. Their demand for relief in its only possible form of a reasonable reconciliation will are long be too insistent for even Mr. de Valera to disregard it. In his power to provide them with fresh outlets for export they can have no surviving faith, now that he has coolly admitted that he sees no possibility of finding new markets to take the place of the British. Vague assertions of fanatical confidence have a way of ending in negations of that sort when the point is reached at which details are imperative. A community so flouted has every right to bestir itself. Many signs reveal that it is doing so. In the collective sense the meetings of indignant farmers are as significant economically as was the formation of a so-called Green Army in a social and political sense. The latter body has been outlawed, it appears, if necessary any accusations of savagery on the part of these farmers who are known to have been attacked and killed.

of Mr. de Valera's policy, of ruin have been increasingly fearless of late, both in the Dail and outside it, notwithstanding the menace of those same gunmen, a reality referred to by numerous speakers. One ironical circumstance lies in the fact that the trend of recent events has led large sections of the public, both in Ireland and in Great Britain, to look upon Mr. Cosgrave and his party associates as little less than warmly pro-British—which certainly they hitherto have not been. There is no telling, however, where they may yet find themselves, seeing that Mr. Patrick Hogan, who was Mr. Cosgrave's Minister for Agriculture, and must therefore view with special concern the injury now done to primary production, has roundly declared his belief that there is more real political and economic independence for the Irish Free State within the Empire than outside it. The numbers who share that belief are likely to be increased. Mr. Cosgrave himself has borne testimony to the fact that Britain wishes to live in peace with the people of Southern Ireland. If his utterance be discounted as proceeding from a leader in Opposition, then consider what is admitted by the men who went to Ottawa. The leader of them, Mr. Sean O'Kelly, a member of the Free State Ministry, interviewed on his home-coming, confirmed the opinion expressed by Mr. Thomas that progress had been made by means of informal conversations. He even, a little later, added the somewhat surprising explanation that the primary reason of his going to Ottawa was not for trade agreements but to reopen Anglo-Irish peace talks. No wonder Mr. Thomas had found it easy to mix his cards with politics. The result of all this was that presently it was stated that the door to peace was still open, and that it was understood Mr. de Valera was ready to meet Mr. Thomas once more if informed of any intended proposals. That was nearly a fortnight ago and presumably that door is open still. The essential facts of the situation have not altered in the slightest, and only on the chance of a somewhat chastened mood can hope be built. When Mr. de Valera came into conference before, it was clearly shown that he did not understand what conferring means. His sole conception of diplomacy (of which he had had little experience) was to lay down his terms and refuse to budge, or to take the other's tactics for granted and to demand another submission. It was a little better when he

Australian Pact.
Great Britain's agreement with Australia provides that, subject to Tariff Board recommendations, United Kingdom goods will enjoy certain minimum preferences graded according to the duties chargeable upon them. The minimum margin of preference will range from 15 per cent. ad valorem, when the duty on United Kingdom goods is up to 19 per cent. ad valorem, to a 20 per cent. preference where the duty is 25 per cent.; but the maximum duty rate must not exceed 75 per cent. Preferences exceeding those resulting from application of this formula remain at the existing level, subject to certain minor reservations. Certain prohibitions on British imports are withdrawn and removal of surcharges and primage duties is promised as soon as practicable.

Vital To Australia.
An important feature of the Australian agreement has reference to an arrangement for regulation of imports into Britain of frozen and chilled meat. It provides, inter alia, for Australia limiting the export of frozen mutton and lamb to Britain in 1933 to an amount equivalent to that so exported in year ending June 30, 1932. Meanwhile, the United Kingdom will arrange with the Australian Government for regulation of the importation of foreign meat in accordance with the agreed programme and for quantitative regulation of supplies of bacon and hams coming on the United Kingdom market.

The Government will consult in 1933 on the best means of securing an improved price situation and more orderly marketing of supplies.

Healthy Situation.
Britain already enjoys a very large proportion of New Zealand's trade, but by the new agreement the Dominion undertakes not to increase its primage duty to lower still further existing duties, to abolish the surtax on British goods and to modify certain basic import duties.

New and increased margins of preferences on United Kingdom goods are granted by the South African agreement affecting $2,000,000 worth of trade.

Hitherto, Newfoundland had not adopted the principle of Imperial Preferences but its agreement provides, as from July next, for preferences of 10 per cent. on a wide range of goods, subject only to certain reservations.

India absorbs about ten per cent. of Britain's total exports but hitherto Britain has had no customs advantages there. Preferences are now proposed on articles in which the total trade last year was $34,500,000 whereof Britain supplied $14,300,000.—British Wireless Service.

WORST DEPRESSION SAFELY PASSED.

Germany Hopeful For Future Progress.

Berlin, Oct. 5.
A statement on the general economic situation of the country based on the reports of the various Chambers of Commerce and issued to-day by the Ministry of Commerce declares that there are signs at hand that the worst point of the depression has been passed.

A renewal of activity is, it is stated, already observable in the iron industry, in some branches of mining, also in textiles and partly in the manufacture of utility articles.

The metal market and the Stock-Exchange also seem to have regained confidence. This optimism, however, is somewhat qualified as the report further states that there exist fears lest political developments, especially in regard to home affairs, may bring new unrest into business life and thus retards these first beginnings of better times.—Trans-Ocean-Kuo Min.

The Cave Tin Mines Of Perlis

Air Kept Pure By Natural Means

VERY RICH DEPOSITS.

A friend who has visited Sir John Campbell's cave tin mines in Perlis, the little-known Malay State to the north of Kedah, on the boundary between British Malaya and Siam, has told me a most interesting tale about Sir John Campbell's adventure. The tin caves which Sir John is working are in the middle of a series of high limestone hills and, as many years ago tin was discovered by Chinese prospectors on the floor of the valley, other prospectors explored the limestone hills with a view to finding the origin of this tin. These earlier prospectors discovered that the tin was being washed from a very small cleft in the mountain side. In an endeavour to reach the source of this tin, many Chinese mining "kong-sis" have worked at excavating tunnels through the hard limestone of these hills.

As the cost of driving quite a small tunnel through this rock averages $20 to $25 per foot, it can be readily understood that explorative tunnels of any length were very costly. This preliminary work served, however, to give useful data as to the course of underground streams and the probable origin of the tin deposits. By very careful analysis of this data and accurate surveying, Sir John Campbell has succeeded in driving his tunnel to a large underground cavern. This cavern has served to receive the tin ore carried by underground streams through these hills for countless ages. Careful thought and ingenious application of engineering principles have enabled Sir John to overcome his principal difficulty—water—and now his main interest is to provide sufficient bags to carry the almost pure tin ore he has found out to the world.

Wonderful Caves.
A detailed description of these underground streams and caverns would take up too much space, but I am told that the immensity of the underground cavern Sir John has found almost beggars description. Lofty rock walls tower to obscurity, extend to the gloom on either side and always there is a sound of running water. The origin of this strange underground river can only be speculated on, but it must come from a great distance because the water in these underground rivers does not rise until six or eight hours after rain in the upper world. Another interesting phenomenon observed in this large underground cavern, many hundred feet underneath the surface of the ground and many thousand feet along tortuous tunnels cut through the solid rock of the hillside, is the extreme purity of the air. This is not due to any expensive mining plant installed by Sir John nor by a vast more expensive series of ventilation chimneys. The air is carried by the underground river from its distant entry into the hills along miles and miles of underground passages, eventually to emerge as a magnificent waterfall near the headworks of Sir John's underground enterprise.

Astonishing Rich.
This waterfall releases the imprisoned air and all work by over sixty men underground can be carried out with a degree of comfort at all times seldom experienced in the working phase of even the largest and most up-to-date underground mining enterprises. My friend also tells me that, from his observations, Sir John Campbell has struck an astonishingly rich tin deposit, which, although concentrated and limited to some extent, makes up for this by the extraordinary purity of the concentrates. Sir John is a pioneer in this form of mining and richly deserves his hard won success. It may be added that Sir John Campbell's success is going to contribute to the prosperity of the State of Perlis in that the State will obtain much-needed revenue from the tin which Sir John will export.

RECEPTION HELD ON JUTLANDIA.

New Chinese Liner On Pacific.

INAUGURATES SERVICE.

Throughout yesterday afternoon crowds of sight-seers flocked to the Kowloon pier where m.s. Jutlandia was thrown open to the public to celebrate the inauguration of the Pacific Oriental service by the East Asiatic Company, Limited, and the Chinese American Shipping Company.

The Jutlandia is the first of three vessels to be put on the run and was formerly in the Indo-China-Europe service. The Jutlandia is sister-ship to the Selandia, which carried their Majesties the King and Queen of Siam to the United States. One of the features of the ship is the spaciousness of the cabins, all of which are ventilated with two port-holes, while a connecting passage between every two cabins is provided for easy access to the bathrooms. Accommodation is provided for 40 passengers, each cabin on the lower deck holding four passengers while a suite de luxe is situated on the upper deck.

Spacious Saloon.

The dining saloon is a spacious one, and adjoins the smoking room, while the music room is situated on the deck above.

In the Orient, Hong Kong will be the terminal port for the ship, which on its trips to and from San Francisco, does not call at Japan. The journey from Shanghai to San Francisco takes 23 days, and the rates are very low. The fare from Hong Kong to Shanghai is $62, first class.

The service has been inaugurated mainly to cater for the Chinese passenger traffic, and although the vessel at present only has first class accommodation, it is anticipated that changes will be made for the carrying of steerage.

Twenty Years Old.

Launched at Copenhagen more than 20 years ago, the Jutlandia is a vessel of 3,000 tons and engaged with 2,500 h.p. Burmeister and Wain Diesel motors, giving a speed of about 11 knots.

The complement of the ship is under the charge of Captain F. Andersen, while the officers and crew are Norwegian. The kitchen is Chinese, but supervised by a Norwegian head waiter.

The next sailing from Hong Kong will be in December, but after that a regular monthly service will be started.

MANSLAUGHTER VERDICT.

Lorry Driver Facing Grave Charge.

A verdict of manslaughter was returned yesterday by the Coroner's Jury at the Central Police Court at the conclusion of the inquest into the death of an amah, Wu Ah Ngo, who was killed on September 22 by a motor lorry, driven by Chin Tze-chong.

A jury comprising Messrs. R. A. Ramsay, A. L. Burton and H. C. Tinson heard the case.

Further evidence was given that a standing tramcar was passed by one of A. S. Watson and Company's motor lorries which knocked down a boy and fatally injured the amah. A statement taken from the lorry driver (who has since disappeared) was read to the jury.

The Coroner: "I thoroughly agree with the verdict. This was a case of very bad driving. I propose to issue a warrant for this man's arrest as soon as possible."

FAILED TO ANSWER TO SUMMONS.

European Is Fined For Contempt.

Mr. Sydney West of Messrs. Harry Wicking and Co. appeared at the Kowloon Magistracy before Mr. Butters yesterday in answer to a summons for failing to attend court on Thursday last for the inquest into the death of Yarden Michael Rooney.

The Magistrate: "Did you receive the original summons?"

EMPIRE POLICY WILL STIMULATE WORLD'S TRADE.

In the first category are included eggs, poultry, butter, cheese and other milk products from Canada, Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, Newfoundland and Southern Rhodesia. Foreign goods in the second category, respecting which Parliament will be asked to impose specific duties, are set out in schedules to the agreements and include wheat in grain 2½ per cent. ad valorem, Schedules to the various agreements set out the details of other proposed duties.

In the schedule to the Canadian agreement the goods specified include apples, pears, canned apples, dried fruits, eggs, and condensed milk. Under the corresponding schedule of the Australian agreement are included in addition to above, powdered milk, honey, raw oranges, and grape fruit. The New Zealand agreement makes no additions to this list but the schedules attached to the South African agreement include a number of specific duties to be imposed on foreign imports of various other fruits, raw and canned, and also a ten per cent. ad valorem duty throughout the year on maize.

The only items specified in the corresponding schedule of the Newfoundland agreement are duties on foreign cod liver oil of 2½ per gallon and on chilled or frozen salmon of 1½ per pound. Under the United Kingdom-Indian agreement which is subject to ratification in India, provision is made for imposition of duties on foreign imports of wheat, rice, castor oil, magnesium chloride, and linseed.

JAPAN CEMENT IN CHINESE BAGS.

Three Charged For Infringement.

The discovery of 206 bags of cement in sacks of the Green Island Cement Co. aboard two junks which were lying near the Sham Shui Po Military Camp, led to the arrest of three men, Li Sang, Shek On and Li Kam-tung. The product itself was of Japanese origin.

Mr. J. B. Prentis appeared for the defendants in Kowloon Court before Mr. Butters yesterday afternoon. He submitted that his clients were innocent of the charge. He stated that Li Sang, the first defendant, was given money to buy cement for a friend. After it was purchased and owing to the embargo on Japanese goods in Canton, he was advised to put it into bags bearing the Green Island Company's mark.

But His Worship convicted the first defendant for applying false trade marks to his goods.

The second and third defendants were convicted for being in possession of the goods.

Fines totalling $180 and imprisonment were imposed.

WHY is it that some advertisers carry a style throughout their press announcements, while others present only a disorderly array of advertisements?

Why is it that those of the great National Advertisers possess an air of distinction, while those of small competitors fail to hit the mark?

The answer lies in the MAT SERVICE. Matrices or stereotypes will ensure your not being dependent on the various assortment of types, to which each periodical in turn subjects your announcements. Your advertisements will carry a pleasing uniformity, a professional touch, through the MAT SERVICE.

HONG KONG v. SHANGHAI SOCCER SCHEDULED FOR NOV. 26

From Anywhere
By C.D.E.

THREE CLUB PLAYERS ARE SELECTED

INTERPORT TRIAL TEAM TO OPPOSE NAVY

B. GOSANO ONLY A RESERVE

A. Howe, H. S. Strange and J. Rodger, three members of the Club, have been selected to represent Hong Kong against Shanghai in the soccer Interport in the northern port next month.

With a view to selecting the remaining eight players a Trial match will be staged on Sunday week when the Probable Interport XI will be opposed to a representative Royal Navy side. The following have been invited to play for the Interport XI: — Rodger (Club); Mullane (Borderers), Strange (Club); Lam Yuk-ying (Athletic), Barber (Lincolns), Tong Kwan (S.C.A.A.); Chen Sui-hong (S.C.A.A.), Dominy (Club), Howe (Club), Leonard (St. Joseph's) and Duncan (Borderers), Reserves — B. Gosano (St. Joseph's), A. Duncan (Club), Bliss (Kowloon), and Lau Mau (South China).

SHANGHAI ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE INTERPORT.

Big Game Scheduled For November 26.

The following arrangements have been made by the Shanghai Football Club in preparation for the visit of the Colony side next month:

November 26—Interport game at Candromed.
November 27—Hong Kong v. Rest of Shanghai.
November 28—Interport Dinner.
November 29—Third game if desired.

In the event of a draw in the Interport game, the replay will be staged on the following day. The team will be accommodated at the Palace Hotel during their stay in Shanghai.

A MIXED DOUBLES SURPRISE

E. F. Fincher and Mrs. McFavish Beaten.

Mr. and Mrs. Grimbles caused a sensation yesterday afternoon when they eliminated E. F. Fincher and Mrs. McFavish in the First Round of the Colony Mixed Doubles Championship by scores of 6-2, 8-3.

The losers were considered in many quarters as the ultimate winners, and were one of the "seeded" pairs.

RECREIO SOCCER TEAMS.

The following will represent the Club de Recreio in their League Football fixtures on Saturday on the Recreio ground, King's Park.

FIRST DIVISION v ROYAL ARTILLERY.

J. D. Minihinnett; P. M. Xavier; H. M. Britto; H. C. Remedios; R. Silva-Netto (captain); V. Marques; J. Goncalves; J. Gomes; G. A. Gutierrez; L. A. Rocha; and F. A. Santos.

THIRD DIVISION v ROYAL AIR FORCE.

A. J. Barretto; A. P. Silva; W. Ogley; A. E. Xavier; A. J. Lima (captain); W. MacKintosh; V. H. Xavier; E. Campos; E. M. Marques; M. A. Oliveira; and H. Botelho.

A. T. LAY'S BRILLIANCE

JATS HOLD CLUB TO A DRAW.

DAND MAINTAINS RECOVERED FORM IN FAST GAME.

A. T. Lay, who did not shine in the recent Hockey Trials at centre-forward, played a brilliant game at left wing for the Hong Kong Hockey Club first eleven against the Jats on the Marina ground yesterday afternoon. The game, which was played at a fast pace, resulted in a draw of one goal all, both points being scored in the first half.

Lay's amazing speed and good reverse stick work when centring was a feature of the game. He was responsible for many fine centres.

Dand, the Club skipper, repeated his performance of last week against the Borderers and played a splendid game.

In the Jats strong defence, Sirdar Khan, who would have been chosen for Hong Kong against the All-India Olympic eleven, was brilliant, keeping a cool head even when in the tightest of situations.

The Jats fielded the same team that beat the H.K.S.R.A. by seven goals to nil last week, while the Club were without the services of J. E. Potter, whose place at left half back was taken by A. E. P. Guest. Guest, however, found this position, as he did in the Trials, most uncomfortable.

G. Duncan, the Club goalkeeper, who had been an absentee in the first two matches this season, made a welcome return, and showed up well towards the middle of the second period of the game.

JATS TAKE LEAD. Opening on the offensive, the speedy Club forwards soon became dangerous, but the Jats' defence was sound. Divett went near with a shot, but hesitancy spoiled a golden chance of opening the score.

The Jats broke away and for a considerable time pressed heavily. Rodger indulged in hard hitting, and repulsed many attacks, but his inclination to infringe the "sticks" rule brought the Jats close in on many occasions. From a short corner, Jall nettled with a snapshot to give the Jats the lead amid applause.

Undaunted the Club pressed. Tetley and Lay being seen to advantage on both wings. Tetley, worked hard and sent in some beautiful centres that were, pitifully fruitless, owing to offside play.

A concerted raid by the Club saw Williams send in a fast shot, that Farman Ali cleared, but from the resultant scrimmage, Tetley scored the equaliser from a difficult angle on the right.

SMART FORWARDS. In the second half, exchanges were of an even faster nature, both goals being scored alternately. On one occasion Divett had hard luck with a shot that just went wide, while Francis, from a pass from Dand, sent in a rising shot that only just missed. The Jats' forward line were combining well, the work of Jall, Morgan and Habib being pretty to watch. On several occasions, the smart stick-work of Jall had W. Reed, who was not up to his best form, beaten.

The Jats nearly nettled through Habib, but his shot was cleared in the nick of time by Rodger. Immediately after Duncan cleared two shots from Morgan and Jall in quick succession.

At this stage, Lay was responsible for many fine runs down the wing, his centring being amazingly accurate, but offside against either Francis, Williams or Divett, who as centre-forward was inclined to stray out of position, robbed the Club of many good opportunities.

Result: Club 1, Jats 1.

Club: G. Duncan (captain), A. T. Lay, V. H. Xavier, E. Campos, E. M. Marques, M. A. Oliveira, and H. Botelho.

Jats: Sirdar Khan (captain), J. E. Potter, J. D. Minihinnett, P. M. Xavier, H. M. Britto, H. C. Remedios, R. Silva-Netto, J. Goncalves, J. Gomes, G. A. Gutierrez, L. A. Rocha, and F. A. Santos.

Referee: A. J. Barretto. A. P. Silva, W. Ogley, A. E. Xavier, A. J. Lima (captain), W. MacKintosh, V. H. Xavier, E. Campos, E. M. Marques, M. A. Oliveira, and H. Botelho.

Reserves: A. M. Pereira, L. Campos, H. M. Asado.

SHANGHAI POLO TEAM TO PLAY COLONY

ALL-AMERICAN FOUR TO DEFEND KESWICK CUP

LAST HONG KONG SUCCESS IN 1912

The Shanghai Polo team, which is expected to arrive in the Colony by the Empress of Japan to-morrow morning, were preceded by their fourteen ponies, which arrived in the Colony yesterday by the Ajax. The game will take place at Causeway Bay to-morrow afternoon at 3 p.m.

Shanghai have held the Keswick Cup against Hong Kong since 1913 in spite of several serious challenges. This year's defending combination is an all-American team who have played a great deal together. The exclusion of E. H. McMichael and H. G. Robinson is bound to occasion surprise, but it is learned that both players were unable to make the trip.

The following are the teams for to-morrow's game which will be decided after six chukkas.

HONG KONG
Captain: P. L. Villar (Captain)
F. A. Pollock
Major J. R. Barry
T. Keswick

SHANGHAI
N. F. Allman (N. 1)
Dr. V. P. Woods (No. 2)
C. S. Franklin (No. 3)
Don Burdick (Back)

The following is taken from the North China Daily News. "The selection may cause a certain amount of surprise to those not in the inner circles of local polo, but it is indisputably a strong team, with the great advantage that its members have played a great deal together, and it is firmly believed they will be able to bring the trophy back to Shanghai. The biggest surprise to the general public, of course, will be the non-inclusion of E. H. McMichael and H. G. Robinson, but neither could make the trip this year."

MAMAK SHIELD.

VETERAN BEAT BATTERY SIDE 2 TO NIL.

Two goals scored in the first half sealed the fate of the 20th Battery, R.A. in their match with H.M.S. Veteran in the Mamak Tournament at King's Park yesterday afternoon. The sailors showed better combination and their defence in which Carver shone, fed the forwards with understanding.

In a weak forward line, Lt. Birt shone for the Battery, whose half backs were inclined to keep too far back with the result that the forwards were starved. Evans and Dodd cleared well in defence, while Comby saved many hot shots.

Rimmer and Ross, who played a fine game at centre-half, were responsible for the Veteran's goals.

PARTHIAN SURPRISED BY R.A.S.C.

Loss Second Game 4 to 1.

A mild surprise was caused at Happy Valley where the much improved R.A.S.C. team, last year's wooden-spoonists in the Tournament, defeated H.M.S. Parthian by 4 goals to 1.

Captain Eve (2), Tipple and Lazenby netted for the soldiers while McBae, the Parthian centre-forward who played a hard game, was responsible for the naval goal.

The Parthian, considered a formidable combination in many quarters, have failed to impress thus far, being defeated in their first two matches in the Tournament.

CLUB "A" TO-MORROW.

The following will represent the Hong Kong Hockey Club "A" team against the South Wales Borderers at 8.15 p.m. to-morrow at King's Park: — Morgan, Lay, and Barry; Rimmer, Ross, and Jones; Garrod, McIntyre, Wade, and Davies.

Golf Topics By Skelpie

KOWLOON golfers were again successful in the inter-club match played at the Valley last Sunday and their six victories in the fourball matches wiped out the deficit on the morning games and gave them a lead of 8 1/2 to secure their seventh victory of this series of inter-club games.

After their lead in the singles, it was surprising to see the Valley fare so badly in the fourball matches, perhaps the tiffin had something to do with it as the hospitality on such occasions usually has the desired effect of upsetting the calculations as to the final result.

Some interesting games were contested in the singles, only one match was played, that between P. Tetor and J. Pooler, while on the other hand D. C. Wilson was the only player to lose his match and the bye, F. J. de Rome winning by 5 and 4 and two up on the bye.

W. A. Stewart was too good for A. L. Eastman and won the first seven holes, but Eastman rallied splendidly to gain a quarter point.

A. D. Brown had a great victory over Dr. Cogan winning his match by 3 and 2 which proved to be a popular win. Deadly putting on the greens was the Valley skipper's strong point and the deciding factor in the game.

THE Kowloon Club have now won seven out of the eleven matches played and have scored 20 1/2 points as against the Valley's 14 1/2.

The following have been the results of the eleven matches played to date:—

October, 1925—Kowloon won at Kowloon by 14 points to 7.
January, 1926—Valley won at the Valley by 15 1/2 points to 13 1/2.
November, 1926—Match cancelled owing to the Valley being unable to raise a team.

May, 1927—Kowloon won at the Valley by 2 1/2 points to 8 1/2.
May, 1928—Kowloon won at Kowloon by 2 1/2 points to 12 1/2.

July, 1928—Valley won at the Valley by 13 1/2 points to 10 1/2.
January, 1930—Kowloon won at Kowloon by 2 1/2 points to 8 1/2.

April, 1930—Kowloon won at the Valley by 18 points to 7.
April, 1931—Valley won at Kowloon by 20 1/2 points to 19 1/2.

May, 1931—Valley won at the Valley by 13 points to 12 1/2.
July, 1932—Kowloon won at Kowloon by 19 1/2 points to 14 1/2.

October, 1932—Kowloon won at the Valley by 19 1/2 points to 15 1/2.

AN interesting point was brought up by Mr. MacKnight, captain of the Kowloon team, regarding the possibility of starting a Junior Golf League between those clubs in the Colony with nine hole courses. This sounds a good scheme and should prove popular if the necessary arrangements can be made. At present there are five clubs with nine hole courses: Happy Valley, Shau O, Kowloon, Country Club, and Deep Water Bay. This would mean a home and an away game for each club which could be easily arranged and would, through time, prove to be a popular fixture throughout the golfing season.

ARRANGEMENTS for the Championship of the Colony to be played at Fanling on the 30th inst. are well in hand. As last year, play will be over 36 holes medal play on the old course, and clubs have been asked to send not more than five entries this year. For this championship entry fee of $5.00 is being charged each competitor. For non-members the fee will be $10.00. The standard of play will be open for practice from October 17 to 19, with the exception of Saturday and Sunday, October 22 and 23.

THAT mythical gentleman "Colonel Bogey" who has been associated with golf since 1890 seems to have outlined his usefulness and will be shortly supplemented by the Standard Scratch Score better known as "par." The standard of golf has so greatly improved that the steady play that the "Colonel" represents is of little use nowadays.

The Prince's Club, Sandwich, and other famous clubs have for some time been fixing their handicaps on the "B.S.S." and in all probability it won't be long until the majority of golfing committees will follow suit.

THE "Colonel Bogey" became connected with the grand old game "Caister-on-Sea" near Great Yarmouth in the birthplace of the "Colonel," and it is stated that Hugh Robinson, Esq., of Caister, was the first to use the name "Colonel Bogey" and the name "Bogey" stuck.

"CAUGHT"

FINANCIAL AID FOR RAILWAY.

$100,000 For Yuet Han Section.

Mr. Tong Haw-yim, station master of the Siu Kwan-Chu Chow Railway, has been appointed by General Lee Siu-kun, head of the Yuet Han Railway, to proceed to Nanking to obtain $100,000 from the Ministry of Railways, for the completion of the Yuet Han Railway. The money is part of the Boxer Indemnity Fund.

In an interview with the China Mail last night Mr. Tong said that a portion of the railroad, from Siu-chow to Lok Cheung, about 40 miles in length, had been completed. The bridge at Chiu Chow, on the incomplete section of the track, had been seriously set back in progress owing to severe damage done by floods. The damage is estimated at $1,000,000.

SCHOOLBOY HURT IN JUMP FROM BUS.

Peter Dillon Treated At Hospital.

Two minor motor spills were reported to the Police yesterday.

Peter Dillon, 12, a Kowloon schoolboy, sustained slight injuries to his face when he alighted from a Kowloon Motor Bus Co. vehicle in Sai Kung Road, Kowloon City. Dillon was taken to the Kowloon Hospital for treatment.

A similar accident was reported from the Sham Shui Po district last night, where a Chinese man, Ho Mui, 21, an employee of the Nam Chan Shop, Fuk Wah Street, jumped from a China Motor Bus Co. vehicle and received internal injuries. He was removed to the Kwong Wah Hospital.

LYTTON REPORT FAVOURABLE.

General Opinion In China "Easy."

Nanking, Oct. 5. While the official attitude of the Government regarding the Lytton Report remains unknown, it is understood, however, that the report is on the whole regarded favourably in political circles here, though there are several points which are considered objectionable and incompatible with the principles of right and justice.

The report will be formally submitted to a meeting of the Central Political Council, after which it will be referred to the Foreign Relations Committee for careful examination. The Southwestern Political Council at Canton is understood to have telegraphed to the Government submitting its views regarding the report.

A Chinese translation of the full text of the Report is being completed by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs. Arrangements are being made with a local printing office to turn out 4,000 printed copies of the translation by the end of the week. —Kuo Min.

Causeway Bay Murder Trial

Mr. J. McNeill To Defend Prisoner.

Mr. J. McNeill, barrister-at-law, has been assigned by the Crown to defend Li Kap-ting, who is appearing on a capital charge before the Chief Justice, Sir Joseph Kemp, K.C., on Tuesday, October 18, at the Supreme Court Criminal Sessions.

Mr. J. A. Fraser, recently appointed acting Assistant Attorney General in the absence of leave of Mr. R. E. Lindsell, is conducting the case for the Crown.

Prisoner is charged with the murder of Leung Sze-sau, 15, a student at 40, Tung Lo Wan Road, Causeway Bay on September 6 last.

BUTCHER INSULTED, WIELDS CHOPPER.

Furious Fight In Central Market.

Exciting a Chinese butcher in the Central Market to a frenzy by making fun of him and calling him names nearly cost a market fooki his life. The butcher clouted him on the head with a chopper.

Fung Chee, the butcher, said that because he had worn a white jacket while working the complainant and some companions had poked fun at him. When he replied they called him names, whereupon he told the complainant that if he did not like what he was wearing that he could "jump in the side channel and drown himself." A fight ensued. The complainant received a three inch cut over the eye.

Although the defendant maintained that he struck the complainant with his clog, His Worship ordered him to pay $5 compensation or seven days' hard labour in default, to serve 14 days for the assault and to be bound over on $50 personal bond for six months.

EMPLOYEE LOSES ACTION.

Claim For Salary Fails In Court.

Judgment for the Hanovia Quartz Lamp Co., 10 Queen's Road Central, who appeared as the defendant firm, was given by Mr. Justice J. R. Wood in the Supreme Court this morning, in a claim for $431 for salary, commission and travelling expenses brought by Mr. H. C. Yuen, an employee, and a former student of Queen's College.

Mr. W. C. Hung, for the plaintiff, explained that there was also a claim for the cost of a passage and expenses for plaintiff's return to Shanghai. Plaintiff was formerly employed by the defendant firm in Shanghai and in April last year he was transferred to the Hong Kong office. He did not get on well with the manager here and on June 20 notice was given to plaintiff that he would be retransferred to Shanghai. He was assaulted by the manager and received medical treatment. Since July 13 plaintiff had received nothing on account for his salary or commission.

Dismissal Accepted. In reply to his Lordship, Mr. Hung said he would accept plaintiff's dismissal and would only claim for cost of expenses to Shanghai—$158. The claim was reduced by $172.

CHINESE ATTACKING JAPAN TROOPS.

General Ma Moves Near Tsitsihar.

Peiping, Oct. 5.

The Heilungkiang National Salvation Army under Generals Su Ping-wen and Chang Tien-ku, has concentrated at Fulaerhohi, Chailantun and Pokotu. The cavalry units under General Su, which have reached the lower reaches of the Nonni River to launch a flank attack on Angangchi, have clashed with the Japanese.

Heilungkiang troops under General Ma Chan-shan are also attacking the Japanese along the Tsitsihar-Keshan Railway. The latter, to shorten their defence line, have concentrated in the vicinity of Tsitsihar, the provincial capital of Heilungkiang.

It is learnt that Chinese, in western Liaoning, has been recovered by 5,000 Volunteers under Feng Chen-kuo. They are now heading for Chingchow.—Kuo Min.
